

6th Spring Seminar

of the

Center for Applied Biotechnology and Molecular Medicine (CABMM)

Thursday, June 09, 2016

13:45 – 17:45

Lecture Room TFA 00.44
Tierspital, Vetsuisse Faculty
University of Zurich
Winterthurerstrasse 260
8057 Zurich

Information and registration:

[http://www.cabmm.uzh.ch/
Events-2.html](http://www.cabmm.uzh.ch/Events-2.html)

silke.mark@cabmm.uzh.ch

Universität Zürich

Program

- 13:45-14:00 Welcome
Prof. Dr. Brigitte von Rechenberg,
Musculoskeletal Research Unit, Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Zurich
- Session 1: Presentations of CABMM members
- 14:00-14:30 "Current research on the bovine uterus and placenta"
Prof. Dr. Alois Boos
Institute of Veterinary Anatomy, Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Zurich/
- 14:30-15:00 "New horizons in neurovascular therapies"
PD Dr. Dr. Zsolt Kulcsár
Service of Diagnostic and Interventional Neuroradiology, Geneva
University Hospitals
- 15:00-15:30 "LAMP and more"
Prof. Dr. Anja Kipar
Institute of Veterinary Pathology, Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Zurich
- 15:30-16:00 Coffee Break
- Session 2: Regulatory requirements and animal welfare
- 16:00-16:10 Introduction "Why do we need regulatory affairs at the University"
Prof. Dr. Brigitte von Rechenberg
Musculoskeletal Research Unit, Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Zurich
- 16:10-16:50 "Translational Research - preclinics to reach clinical trials"
Dr. Fabienne Hartmann-Fritsch
Tissue Biology Research Unit, University Children's Hospital Zurich
- 16:50-17:30 "Possible strategies for improving the design of animal experiments to comply with Swissmedic regulations"
Dr. Thomas Ludersdorfer
Wyss Translational Center, ETH Zurich and University of Zurich
- 17:30-17:45 Concluding Remarks
Prof. Dr. Brigitte von Rechenberg
Musculoskeletal Research Unit, Vetsuisse Faculty, University of Zurich

Followed by an apéro for all participants